Western North Carolina Quilters Guild

Fourth Thursday!!! May 23 at 10:00 AM
Grace Lutheran Church, Hendersonville, NC

Upcoming in May, on the Fourth THURSDAY, MAY 23rd, we will have Susan Cleveland, (We have arranged to share this speaker with the Asheville Quilt Guild after our May quilt Show.) ‘Susan Cleveland and My Eclectic Quilt Pageant’ will be her discussion of tips to increase accuracy and add fresh interesting details with piping, prairie points, heavy threads and embellishments. A three-hour afternoon demo workshop will be offered with in-depth information and samples of learning to add eye-catching details to quilts and increase accuracy. NO sewing machines! Just bring paper and pen, handouts are provided. Cost is $25.00 for members, $35.00 for non-members. Please see Jane E. Kennedy or Linda Lou Harris for signing up and payment at the April Meeting, or mail payment before May 1st.

Please remember to bring blocks for the North Carolina Hurricane Quilt Project!!!

Footnote from the Scholarship Committee:

“Attention Quilters and Sewers”, The Scholarship committee has been working on the Glover collection for our fund. We would like to bring to the guild meeting each week a small amount of the enormous stuff we were given.

We have an enormous collection of every thread color, please peruse your home stash and come ready to buy some new, partially used thread for $.25 cents a spool. More of various things will be at the guild meetings each month.

Quilt Show 2019 - Sale of Books, Magazines, and Patterns

For the first time, our guild will sell gently used books, magazines, and patterns at our May quilt show. We’re calling our shop “NEW TO YOU” and, thanks to your very generous donations, we have a wonderful variety of items to sell. Books will be just $2 each, patterns $1, and magazines 25 cents. Look for us in a little room in the corner of the show at Bonclarken’s YAB.

We still welcome donations of gently used quilting books (general sewing books are OK, too, but not knitting, crocheting, or cross stitch, etc.), old and new quilt magazines in good condition, and quilt patterns in usable condition.

Contact Barbara or Ellen for delivery options.

Thanks so much for supporting this new effort.

Workers and Vendors Quilt Show Parking: We are asking our Quilt Show workers and vendors to please park in the lot near the swimming pool. There will be signs to direct you to that parking area. This will allow our paying guests to park closer to the building.

Thank you, Dawn Bartholic

Western North Carolina Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes April 18, 2019

Bridget O'Malley welcomed guests, (Diane Thurman, Pat Hull and Connie Wells), and new members, (Merry-Beth Noble and Anita Morris), and related she will be on vacation for 3 weeks returning for the quilt show. She thanked the quilt show committee for their efforts organizing the approaching quilt show.

Members of the committee gave additional advice: Jane E Kennedy gave an overview of the programs for the next few months followed by Show and Tell; Georgia Bonesteel related that she has fabric and thread from the estate of a quilter and the proceeds are going to the Scholarship Committee.

After the break, Sandy Chambers provided an interesting and informative program about color. The meeting adjourned at 11:30pm.

This is the 2019 WNCQG Raffle Quilt, "Pathways Through Nature", by Judy Heyward. The drawing will be held in Flat Rock, at the Bonclarken Conference Center YAB building at the close of the quilt show on Saturday, May 18 at 4 p.m.

LIBRARY NEWS

We added two new books to the guild library this month.

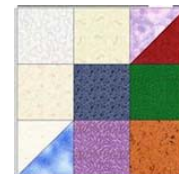

Changing Seasons by Gail

Pan - this book features small patchwork quilts with interchangeable hand embroidered panels

Strip Pieced Bargello by Judith Steele

We're always interested in learning about new books you might like to see in our library. Let us know or look for request forms at the library table. We already have many books for all levels and interests of quilters. Come check us out!

Carolina Hurricane Quilt Project

Carole Carter, website at: <https://frommycarolinahome.com/>, has started a project to help the hurricane victims from Florence and Michael, along the Carolina coast.

If we could just prepare a few blocks toward this worthy cause, it will provide comfort and love to someone who has lost everything in the floods caused by the hurricanes.

We would like to gather squares in the next month to use them to create a bed-size quilt. Please bring to the next meeting: scrappy darks and scrappy lights in the following sizes: 4.5" and 5.25". Or if you have a large bed size new or slightly used quilt you would like to donate, that is welcome also. Any help you can provide will be greatly appreciated!!!
